GROUND FLOOR

Step in through the painted solid wooden door into an entrance porch ideal for storing boots and coats. Continue through into the ground floor open plan living/dining/kitchen with its vaulted ceiling and wooden floor. This spacious and impressive open plan room has much character including a painted wooden seat with curved back, one of the original pews, floor to ceiling book cases and a wood burning stove set on a stone hearth. There are triple aspect wooden windows which flood the room with light, a painted wooden staircase with turned balustrade rises to the first floor mezzanine/bedrooms. To the rear of the living/dining area is a fitted kitchen with wooden cupboards and work surface over. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a modern bathroom. The interior of the Chapel has been thoughtfully designed to ensure that the integrity of the original building is retained whilst creating a contemporary interior to meet the needs of modern living and using all the space available to ensure that the open plan room offers a light, welcoming and attractive aesthetic environment with practical features too including storage.

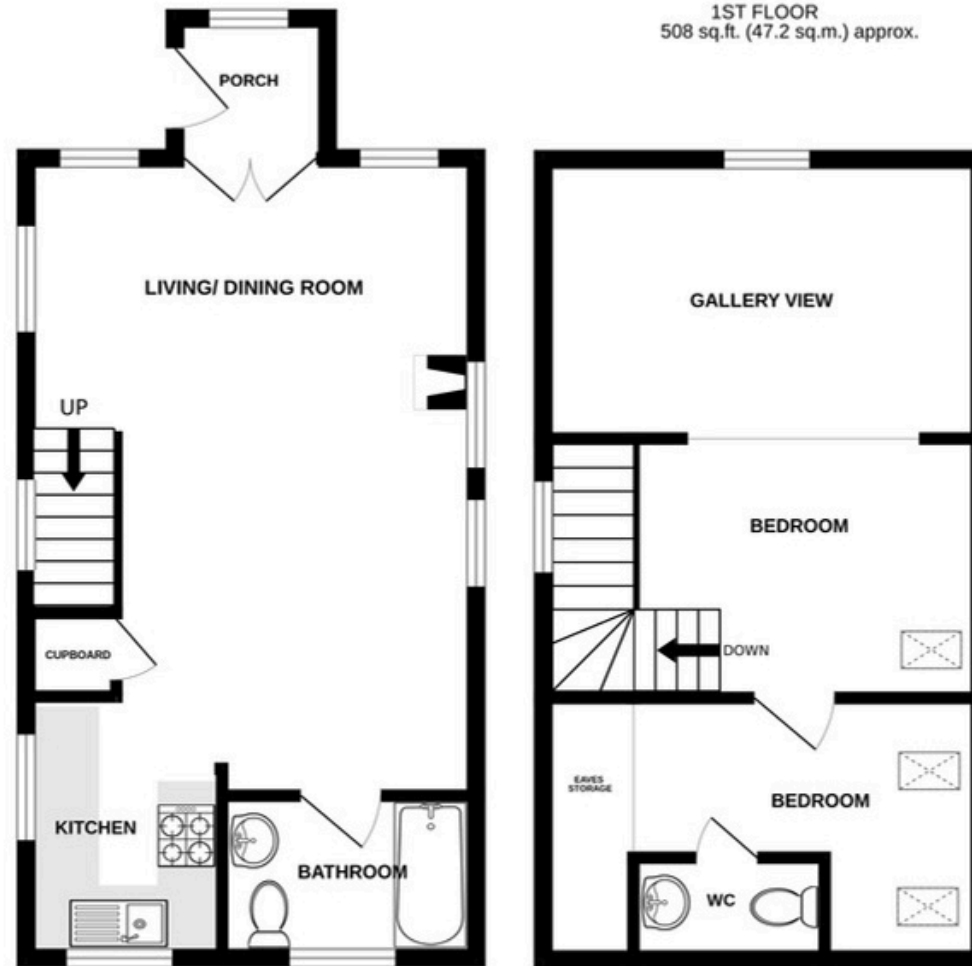

FIRST FLOOR

The first floor galleried/mezzanine floor bedroom is enclosed by wooden balustrade overlooking the open plan ground floor room. The apex ceilings ensure there is sufficient head height above the bed and main sleeping area with the eaves fitted with drawers for storage. From the mezzanine bedroom is a glorious view of the round stained glass window, a roof light above the bedroom ensures the room is well lit and the dark skies can be enjoyed through the window at night with no light pollution. To the right of the staircase is a second bedroom fitted with twin cabin type beds, the eaves are fitted with a storage area and again, there is a roof light. Situated off the second bedroom is a cloakroom.

OUTSIDE

The former chapel is fronted by a stone wall with iron railings and stone steps up to the front door. Further along from the Chapel is the vehicular entrance with a wooden gate leading to a concrete and gravel surfaced driveway. From the driveway is a level entrance to both the Chapel and the Office / Work Studio. To the rear of the two buildings are beautiful, mature extensive gardens created by the previous owner to supply her herb and flower business and enjoy leisure time. The gardens comprise planted beds, mature trees including fruit trees and various secluded seating areas perfectly positioned to escape the business of day to day life and just sit and be in a peaceful and private setting. Adjoining the Chapel is a stone terrace ideal for enjoying a morning coffee.

OUTBUILDINGS

In addition to the office/work studio, other outbuildings include a timber built potting shed, greenhouse and timber garden shed.

LOCAL AREA

Nestling in the foothills of the Black Mountains, the ancient village of Longtown has an award winning village store and post office, country pub, village hall and a well regarded primary school. The larger village of Ewyas Harold is just 5 miles where a wider range of amenities include: post office, doctors, dentist, public houses, butchers shop, fish and chip shop, veterinary surgery, places of worship and primary school. Longtown is steeped in history and has a number of interesting and historic buildings including a ruined castle built in 1180. The village is bordered by beautiful countryside with access to Offas Dyke Path, the spectacular Llanthony Valley is within a few miles. The A465 Hereford Road is approximately 4.5 miles away and this road in turn links with the A40 and A449 and onward to the M4/M5 and M50 motorways. Railway stations can be found in both Abergavenny and Hereford. The towns of Abergavenny and Hereford are easily accessed, these two important local centres with their diverse range of amenities and facilities are approximately 10 miles and 17 miles distant respectively. Both have a railway station and links to motorway networks.

DIRECTIONS

From Abergavenny take the A465 north towards Hereford. After passing through the village of Pandy turn left at the Old Pandy Inn, signposted Longtown and follow this road for several miles passing through the hamlet of Clodock. Upon reaching Longtown the property will be found on the left hand side just after the fork in the road.
