SELLER INSIGHT

"We have utterly adored our chapter here at Brook Farm House, it is a large home but feels so cosy, enveloped by inspiring views that constantly change with the weather and the seasons. As our young adult children begin to fly the nest and we move on to our next adventure, we're excited for the new owners to experience the idyllic life we have all enjoyed here. The house and the gardens have been wonderful for our children to have freedom to explore and play and have allowed us to host big happy gatherings. Living in a small hamlet offers the peace, quiet and privacy everyone craves in modern life but there is always someone a few steps along the lane if you need them. Our neighbours are wonderful, and we will miss them all. Whoever chooses to make Brook Farm House their home, we hope they will love, as we have, everything this idyllic corner of Monmouthshire has to offer. Joining the canal at bridge number 65 for long walks as the ducks, barges and the occasional canoeist idle past then taking a short detour from bridge number 68 up to the Horseshoe pub, with its much sought after vistas in the summer, it's crackling open fire in the winter and, for those who have walked up an appetite, a beautifully presented menu and wine list. Brook Farm House has been a great base from which to discover and explore new and beautiful places in and around Monmouthshire. The home lends itself to modern life, being spacious and contemporary but retaining every inch of charm you expect to find walking into a stone-built farmhouse. It can feel as though winter Sunday afternoons were invented just for the moments when we've been on a long walk and relax in the sitting room, fire crackling away, looking out at the mist rolling along the easter hill range. Simply put, it is a beautiful home which affords a wonderful lifestyle in a beautiful part of the world."

GROUND FLOOR

---

Enter through the front door into the welcoming entrance hall, an oak staircase with glass balustrade rises to the first floor with doors leading to the two reception rooms. There is a useful understairs storage space located in the entrance hall and a further door at the rear of the entrance hall opening into the spectacular open plan kitchen/living/dining room. The traditional sitting room has an oak floor and skirting boards and a feature brick fireplace with a wood burning stove set on a stone hearth. On the opposite side of the entrance hall is the door to the second reception room, again with an interesting feature fireplace with exposed stone and wooden mantel, an inset wood burning stove is set on a stone hearth. From the reception room are stone steps down to the impressive open plan kitchen/living/dining room which spans the width of the farmhouse. Truly the heart of the home, a perfect place to spend time with family, friends or just enjoy a peaceful coffee in the early morning. The kitchen is contemporary in design and fitted with the modern-day appliances that would be expected of a kitchen of this quality enhanced by solid worksurfaces, a substantial central island with hob and extractor over and a tiled floor. The dining area has ample space for a large table and chairs. The bi fold doors from the dining area, which flood the room with light, open to a terrace and the formal garden combining the indoors/outdoors during the summer months. Situated off the kitchen is a useful utility/laundry room with door to the outside. Whilst contemporary in design, the kitchen/living/dining room has retained the character of the original farmhouse with wooden brace and ledge doors, exposed stone, and timbers.

The ground floor accommodation is completed by a useful wet room, located off the utility room, perfect for showering dogs after a muddy winter's walk! The ground floor accommodation flows seamlessly, and the configuration provides family areas to enjoy time together or separate reception rooms to escape and read a book, watch television, or listen to music.

FIRST FLOOR

---

The impressive first floor boasts four spacious bedrooms all with en-suite shower rooms. The principal bedroom also benefits from a double vanity unit and a bath. The bedrooms retain the character of the original farmhouse with exposed timbers, with two bedrooms containing features fireplaces.

OUTSIDE

The front garden is enclosed with a low-level wall and to one side, a brook that runs along the boundary, both front and rear. The formal rear garden has a stone terrace adjoining the rear of the house and beyond, lawns with planted areas, mature hedges, and specimen trees. The rear garden is very private and is the perfect place to enjoy the peace and tranquillity of this beautiful location. In the warmer weather, enjoy dining outside with family and friends.
